Frequently Asked Questions

Does Anlin's warranty really cover two lifetimes?

Yes! If you are the original purchaser, your warranty is in effect for as long as you own and occupy the home. In addition, if you ever sell your home, simply contact Anlin to transfer the warranty and the same coverage will apply to one subsequent homeowner. That's worry-free coverage for two lifetimes.

Will Anlin replace my glass if it breaks accidentally?

Yes! Anlin will extend complimentary accidental glass breakage coverage for as long as you own and occupy the home. This complimentary coverage includes standard and even specialty glass types, such as obscured, tinted, tempered and V-groove. The only exclusion is laminated glass.

Are parts, shipping and labor free to me?

Yes! Anlin will cover ALL COSTS, INCLUDING PARTS, SHIPPING AND LABOR to repair or replace covered products. You won't need to pay a cent and there are no hidden fees.

Is the warranty in effect automatically?

Yes! Once your Anlin purchase and installation is complete, your warranty is in effect. You don't have to submit anything. However, we do recommend contacting our warranty department at (800) 899-4896 to ensure that our records have your correct contact information such as: name, address, phone, city, and Anlin order number (provided by contractor). You will receive service for covered claims with or without your warranty booklet.

Is it easy to obtain service under the warranty?

Yes! All you do is contact the contractor or builder who installed your products, or contact Anlin directly. Provide some basic information and allow the contractor or Anlin reasonable access to examine the product for defects and make covered repairs.

Will repairs be done by a qualified person?

Yes! Anlin's highly trained service technicians know every Anlin product, literally inside and out. When one of our service technicians arrives at your home and provides professional, 5-star service, you'll be glad you chose Anlin. We strongly encourage homeowners to visit review and opinion sites such as Yelp to learn why Anlin is so highly rated.
